United Nations Associations in Canada - Vancouver

The United Nations Association in Canada Vancouver Branch (UNAC-V) in cooperation with Kwantlen Polytechnic University (KPU) is proud to present the 8th annual Think Global, Link Local (TGLL) networking event. For the second year in a row the event will be taking place virtually and will be happening on Friday, March 11th, 2022, from 8:30 am to 11:30 am.

This event links young persons to their globally minded community organizations and provides them with firsthand experience with participating organizations. (Learn more here!)

We are also very pleased to be hosting a variety of incredible organizations this year including the following:

- BC Council for International Cooperation (BCCIC)
- Canadian Red Cross
- Cuso International
- Immigrant Services Society of BC (ISSofBC)
- Oxfam
- World Vision Canada
- Women Transforming Cities

With several more organizations in the works, please join us for some fantastic networking, education, and inspiration in this one-of-a-kind experience!

Early-bird tickets are just $15 plus fees.
After February 20th, tickets are available for $20 plus fees, with tickets on sale now at Eventbrite!

This year we welcome Jaime Webb, President & CEO of the United Nations Association Canada as our Keynote Speaker.
