Online Writing Feedback Services

KPU Students can choose between two asynchronous writing feedback platforms: WriteAway and Upswing. Students using these services can submit their assignments and receive writing skills feedback.

Support for Arts Students

Learning Strategists

Learning Strategists can help students develop learning skills and metacognitive strategies needed for success. This includes effective reading comprehension strategies, critical thinking, vocabulary development, writing skills, personal organization, self management, and goal setting. Learning Strategists can partner with faculty to create in-class sessions or discipline-specific workshops to support students in developing the skills needed for success.

Academic Skills Workshops

Academic Skills Workshops, available on all campuses, allow students the opportunity to build study skills in an interactive learning environment. Academic Skills Workshops designed to support multilingual learners are regularly offered, and additional workshops can be scheduled on request through the semester.

Available workshop topics include:

- Analyzing Assignments and Projects
- Exam Preparation Strategies
- Say "No" to Procrastination
- Budgeting Time for Balance
