

Safety and Security

Kwantlen Polytechnic University is committed to providing you a safe and ready learning environment. We have established an Office of Emergency Planning responsible for the implementation of our READYCAMPUS™ program and the administration of our Campus Security Services.

EMERGENCY PLANNING

In the event of an emergency, any emergency, please follow the instructions provided by our EAGLE EYE digital signage system, your faculty, and other designated emergency response personnel (such as Campus Security Services, Campus Emergency Response Team members, Fire Fighters, and Police Officers). We are in process of developing a Total Alert Emergency Notification System involving many elements, some of which will be tested in the course of your studies or work here.

SECURITY

If you or someone else is in danger or gravely harmed, call 911 immediately. Otherwise, while the Campuses are open, the telephone number and methods of requesting immediate assistance and calling to report security related events directly are:

- Langley Campus call 778.552.8615
- Cloverdale Campus call 778.552.8614
- Surrey Campus call 778.552.8612
- Richmond Campus call 778.552.8613

If you do not have access to your own phone, office phone, or do not have the change to use a public telephone:

At all campuses – To immediately report all suspicious, threatening, or illegal activity, you may contact Campus Security Services using campus TELUS public telephones equipped with a security button immediately below the dial pad.

At Langley, Surrey, and Richmond campuses – you may also press the large button on our yellow call boxes situated indoors throughout building floors.
