DESCRIPTION

The goal of the Bachelor of Arts, Minor in Language and Culture is to prepare students for an increasingly diverse and interconnected world. Students will develop strong linguistic, communicative, and cultural competence, both written and oral, in the languages and cultures of study. They will be prepared for both graduate programs and employment opportunities in a wide range of fields that benefit from cross-cultural communication and competence. The program includes courses in a number of departments, reflecting the diversity and interconnectedness of today's society.

The program also permits a variety of international experiences to encourage students to take up to one year of their studies in field schools or exchange opportunities.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Students pursuing a minor in Language and Culture must be admitted to the Faculty of Arts.

DECLARATION REQUIREMENTS

Students pursuing this minor must declare their intention prior to graduation.

CURRICULAR REQUIREMENTS

Students pursuing a Bachelor of Arts degree must complete all requirements in the Bachelor of Arts framework in addition to their major or minor program requirements.

Note: A first-year English course, ENGL 1100, is a requirement of this program. This course has prerequisites that may require a student to complete additional preparatory courses.

The Bachelor of Arts, Minor in Language and Culture consists of a minimum total of 18 credits. At least 15 credits must be from courses at the 3000-level or above. The 18 credits will be divided as follows:

- 6 credits in courses at the 3000-level or above in one language (Language A*), plus

- 3 credits in another language (Language B*), or a Linguistics (LING) course at the 1000- or 2000- level, plus
- 3 credits in Cultural Studies (CUST) courses at the 3000-level or above, or approved culture-related courses in other disciplines from the list below, plus
- 6 additional credits in courses at the 3000-level or above selected from:
 - Language A courses
 - Cultural Studies (CUST) courses
 - Linguistics (LING) courses
 - Approved culture-related courses in other disciplines from the list below

*Note: One of five languages (FREN, JAPN, MAND, PUNJ or SPAN) may be chosen as Language A or Language B. Students will normally begin their language courses at the 1100-level, but may enter directly into 3000-level courses, if they pass a prior learning assessment test in that language. Guidelines for typical course progressions can be found on the Department's webpage at: kpu.ca/arts/modern-languages/.
