

Institutional Authority

The Province of British Columbia, through the authority of the Ministry of Advanced Education, has vested joint stewardship of the university in the Board of Governors and the Faculty Senate, a bicameral governance structure. The leadership and administration of the university are mandated to the Chancellor and the President and Vice Chancellor.