

Get the latest information from KPU International Advising!

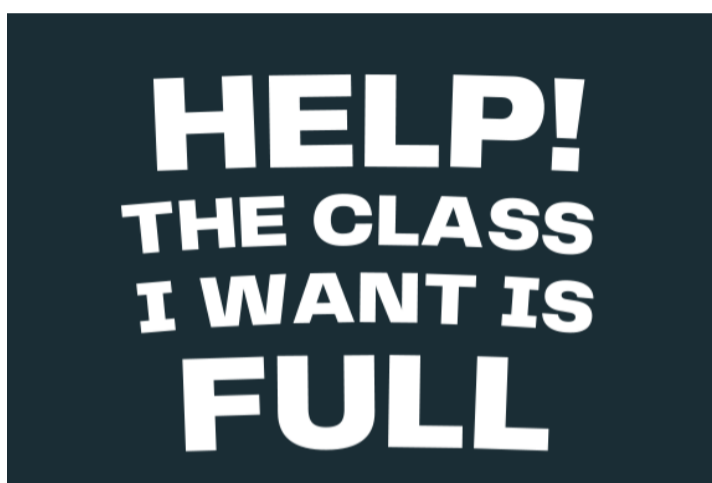

Hello international students of KPU, we hope this newsletter finds you all in good health and high spirits as we gear up to celebrate the upcoming BC Day 2023. As we enjoy the warmth of summer, it's time to come together and honour the unique beauty and culture of our beloved province. This edition of our newsletter is dedicated to commemorating this special day while also bringing you exciting updates and activities for August 2023 to make your experience at KPU truly memorable!

Classes are full! What should I do?

The class you want for Fall 2023 is full? Don't worry! Other students may change their selections, or new sections of certain classes may open to accommodate more students. On top of that, you still have a chance to get into the classes you want with our Waitlisting option.

To learn more about Waitlisting, visit KPU website or watch our video "Classes are Full What Should I Do?". You can also see our handout to know more about what students should do when classes are full.

Necessary KPU documents for PGWP application!

To apply for your PGWP, you will need the following documents from KPU:

- A PGWP Letter (also called Completion Letter)
- Your Official Transcript

For more details, watch the video "KPU Documents Required to Apply for PGWP" on our YouTube channel.

If you have more questions about PGWP application, book an appointment or join our drop-in sessions now to meet with our International Education Advisors!
