Language Proficiency	Partner institutions are responsible for nominating students that meet KPU's English requirements. Exchange students who intend to take regular undergraduate courses at KPU are expected to meet the language standards governing all KPU students. English Proficiency Requirements for Admission can be found at: kpu.ca/calendar/2018-19/ar/englishproficiency.html
Accommodation	KPU does not have on-campus housing facilities. Instead, our partner, First Choice International Placement Inc., provides homestay placements for incoming students. Accommodation resources can be found at: kpu.ca/international/accommodations
Health Insurance	Exchange students will automatically be enrolled in the KPU Temporary Medical Insurance Plan upon registration in classes. Students are responsible for paying the fee for this insurance through their KPU student account prior to the fee payment deadline each semester. Fees, coverage and payment deadlines can be found at: kpu.ca/international/insurance
Study Visa	In general, foreign nationals need a study permit to study in Canada if staying longer than 6 months. There are some exceptions. Exchange students may be eligible to obtain a study work permit. For the most current information, visit: cic.gc.ca/english/study/index.asp .
