WILSON SCHOOL OF DESIGN

Design your future with an education from the Wilson School of Design. Regardless of the program you choose, you'll learn that the real genius of an idea is the work that goes into bringing it to life. You'll fail. And that's okay. We all fail. It takes a lot of failing to make design look confident. So go ahead, fail brilliantly.

Our programs provide you with incredible opportunities to work with prominent design companies on various real-world projects. Whether through mentorships or workplace practicums, you'll connect directly with globally renowned design leaders including Lululemon, Kit and Ace, MEC and many others.
