

Canadian Youth Environmental Leadership Scholarship Nomination Form

Do you know...

- A student who demonstrates innovation and advancement of new ideas regarding environmental issues?
- A young leader committed to protecting the environment?
- A catalyst for change inspiring others to tackle emerging environmental issues?

Nominate your emerging environmental leader for the Canadian Youth Environmental Leadership Scholarship!

The main goals of this scholarship program are as follows:

- Support young Canadians who are dedicated to the pursuit of environmental innovation, advancement of new ideas and new ways of thinking when it comes to protecting the environment;
- Invest in the education of young Canadians and build the leadership foundation of the future to tackle emerging environmental issues;
- Provide an annual scholarship to Canadian post-secondary students who demonstrate community and environmental leadership, commitment to sustainability and strong education performance;
- Help fill a gap in Canada and create an increased cohort of highly educated, entrepreneurial and environmentally engaged leaders that will be the policy-makers, business-leaders, inventors and entrepreneurs of tomorrow.

Each scholarship is worth $5000, along with the following benefits:

- The offer of a paid summer employment at either Cenovus, The Delphi Group, ARC Resources or CN for the winners and runner-ups;
- Mentorship opportunities;
- Invitations (and possibly stipends) to annual gatherings, networking opportunities and events.

Applicants must be a Canadian citizen (or permanent resident or landed immigrant), studying at a Canadian university or college, have completed at least two years of an undergraduate program and be between the ages of 18 and 28 years old.

This scholarship will be awarded to two Canadian students who best combine academic achievement and public environmental service. Full Scholarship Program details can be found at: www.cenovus.com/careers/students.html
