

Aboriginal Self-Identification and Contact Form

Kwantlen Polytechnic University is dedicated to the success of its Aboriginal students. An Aboriginal Person is identified as an “Indian, Metis or Inuit person of Canada” (Constitution Act of 1982, Section 35, Number 2).

Why self-identify?

By self-identifying as part of your official student record, you will assist Kwantlen with the tracking of university participation and completion rates for Aboriginal students and our overall strategic goals of providing a learning environment that is accessible and responsive to the needs of Aboriginal students and our Aboriginal communities.

Why subscribe to our contact list?

Our contact list is accessible to Aboriginal services staff only. You will receive targeted information regarding employment opportunities, scholarships and awards, educational opportunities, special events and academic support programs. Students can request that they be removed from the contact list at any time by contacting Kwantlen’s First Nations Education Coordinator.

Section 1 – Aboriginal Identification

☐ I wish to be identified as an Aboriginal person as part of my official student record.

I further wish to be identified as an Aboriginal person in the following way (check all that apply):

☐ First Nation/Indian (includes status, non-status, Treaty and non-Treaty)

☐ Metis

☐ Inuit

☐ I wish to be added to the Aboriginal Services contact list for the purposes described above
