

TALK

Third Age Learning
at Kwantlen

A preview of fall 2017 courses

In Surrey:

- Options in Alternative Medicine
- First Nations of Canada
- Listening: a Whole Mind/Body Experience
- The Story of the English Bible
- Bagpipes
- Climate Change in the Pacific Northwest
- Canadian History
- Make a Map with ArcGIS
- China and Mythology
- Seven Pieces of Technology Seniors Should Embrace

In Cloverdale and Langley:

- Zen Draw
- Thinking Skills
- The Great War Remembered
- 3D Printing Talk & Demo
- Calligraphy
- Hot Topics
- The Horse & the Farrier
- Homeopathy

In Richmond:

- Hot Topics
- Why the Amazon Matters
- Dietary Guidelines
- Babies, Trolls, Death and Magic in the Finnish Sauna
- Wind and Solar Energy
- Psychology of Small Brains
- Canada at 150
- Forensic Anthropology

Creative and stimulating educational activities for adults over 50

TALK's Philosophers' Corners

are open to the public with a suggested donation of $2 to attend plus the cost of your meal

In Richmond - 1st Thursday at the Steveston Hotel 12111 Third Ave:

- How can we remove the stigma about mental illness? (Oct 5)
- Is legalizing drugs the solution? (Nov 2)
- Should we be tolerant of intolerant people? (Dec 7)

In Surrey - 2nd & 4th Thursdays at Ricky's 2160 King George Hwy:

- Great turning points in human history and what made them so. (Sep14)
- How responsible are we all for famine/war in far away countries? (Sep 28)
- Fact & Theory: what are they? (Oct 12)
- Should children be "streamed" into academic or trades education? (Oct 26)
- Why are there religions? (Nov 9)
- Why do we keep pets? (Nov 23)
- Truth: how do we know it? (Dec14)

Please join us!

TALK membership is only $10 per year and we keep the cost of our courses very low.

See more info at kpu.ca/talk

