

Creative and stimulating educational activities for adults over 50

Winter/Spring 2018 courses Registration opens Jan. 15

In Surrey:

- Read Any Good Films Lately? Feb 5, 7
- Learning in Place Mar 6
- Waves in Light and Sound Mar 7, 14
- Zentangle Mar 26
- Out of the Ice Age Apr 13
- Leonardo da Vinci Apr 17
- Bard on the Beach May 8

TALK Special Event May 15

Aging & Your Brain

open to the public—all must register

In Cloverdale and Langley:

- Pruning Fruit Trees Feb 23
- Best Cell Phone Apps Mar 5
- Making Your Money Last Mar 21
- Estate & Personal Planning Apr 4, 11
- The Future for Marijuana Apr 21, 28
- Feel and Be Younger Apr 23
- Birding Apr 24, 28
- Craft Beer Brewing May 4
- How KPU is Saving Honeybees May 22

In Richmond:

- Dinosaurs: Then and Now Feb 9, 16
- Current Trends in Dentistry Feb 17
- The Housing Supply Myth Feb 21
- The Psychology of Small Brains Mar 9
- Memoirs & our Grandchildren Mar 10, 17
- Hot Topics Mar 13, 20, 27
- Farmers' Co-ops in Africa Apr 10
- Indigenous Art Tour at YVR Apr 27

TALK's Philosophers' Corners

open to the public with a suggested donation of $2 to attend plus the cost of your meal

In Richmond - 1st Thursday at the Steveston Hotel, 12111 Third Avenue:

- A rational debate on immigration: is it possible? February 1
- Do we ever learn from the past? March 1
- Would you rather have power or fame? April 5
- Why is early education not valued by society? May 3
- What is it to be human? June 7

In Surrey - 2nd & 4th Thursdays at Ricky's, 2160 King George Boulevard:

- Pursuit of happiness: real or illusory? Feb. 8
- Utopias: what are some common elements? February 22
- Will sexual harassment & violence ever end for women in a paternalistic society? March 8
- Does history have any current meaning? March 22
- The importance of skepticism April 12
- Is security a fear-game? April 26
- Managing memory loss as we age May 10

Please join us!

TALK membership is only $10 per year and we keep the cost of our courses very low.

More information at

kpu.ca/talk

