

Faculty of Community & Health Studies

Welcome to the Faculty of Community & Health Studies.

The Faculty of Community and Health Studies will be relocating for the Fall 2012 semester.

Students currently enrolled in Community & Health programs will be transitioning from the Surrey Campus to the Langley Campus in Fall 2012. Prospective students accepted into Community & Health programs commencing in Fall 2012 will be attending at the Langley Campus.

DEAN:

TRU FREEMAN, PHD

Phone: 604.599.2263

E-mail: tru.freeman@kwantlen.ca

IN THIS SECTION:

You will find details of the Community & Health Studies programs:

- About the Faculty of Community & Health Studies
- Critical Care Nursing: Post Baccalaureate Certificate
- Gerontology-Based Therapeutic Recreation: Certificate
- Graduate Nurse Qualifying: Certificate of Completion
- Graduate Nurse Re-Entry: Citation
- Graduate Nurse, Internationally Educated Re-entry: Certificate
- Health Care Assistant: Certificate
- Health Unit Coordinator: Certificate
- Nursing: Bachelor of Science in Nursing
- Nursing: Degree Completion for Registered Nurses
- Psychiatric Nursing: Bachelor of Psychiatric Nursing
- Special Education Teacher Assistant: Certificate

CONTINUING / PROFESSIONAL STUDIES

The Faculty of Community & Health Studies also offers a selection of continuing education and professional studies courses and programs. For more information about these offerings, see kwantlen.ca/health/professional_studies.