

INTERDISCIPLINARY EXPRESSIVE ARTS (IDEA)

This is a list of the Interdisciplinary Expressive Arts (IDEA) courses available at KPU.

IDEA 1100 CR-3

Interdisciplinary Foundations

Students will explore various practices, skills, and disciplines to further their academic, personal, and professional development. They will examine interdisciplinary inquiry and creativity, the uses of interdisciplinary academic approaches, and the applications of interdisciplinarity in culture, education, and professional domains. They will learn interdisciplinary skills through individual projects, group work, and the development of online portfolios.

Transferable (refer to transfer guide)

IDEA 1240 CR-3

Writing for New Forms and Media

Students will learn and practice new forms of creative writing such as collaborative composition, writing for new and social media, blogging, and writing for digital publications. They will study emerging uses of online technologies and will learn writing skills through individual composition, group work, and the development of electronic portfolios.

NOTE: Students may earn credits for only one of CRWR 1240 or IDEA 1240, as they are the same course.

IDEA 3100 CR-3

Interdisciplinary Expressive Arts 1

Students will learn about the history, philosophy, and current application of interdisciplinary approaches within the expressive arts. They will develop interdisciplinary skills in creativity and academic inquiry, will become familiar with multiple expressive modalities (creative writing, music, movement, fine arts, theatre, expressive arts therapies, storytelling, photography, film making, etc.) and will explore the application of those modalities in an integrated learning environment.

NOTE: Students may earn credits for only one of IDEA 3100 and CUST 3100, as they are the same course.

Prerequisites: 30 credits of 1100-level or higher courses

IDEA 3301 CR-3 (formerly CRWR 3301)

Myth, Culture, and Creativity

Students will learn about the role of mythological traditions in culture and creativity throughout the world. They will contextualize their own creative and academic inquiries within the multicultural streams of mythological expression and will broaden their understanding of the roots of creativity.

Prerequisites: 30 credits of 1100-level or higher courses
Not Transferable

IDEA 3302 CR-3

Creativity and Leadership in Groups

Students will experience, learn to facilitate, and lead the interpersonal and creative process within a group context. They will participate in and examine creative modalities, self-awareness practices, and group dynamics. They will apply facilitation and leadership strategies for promoting creativity, community, and personal development.

Prerequisites: 60 credits of 1100-level or higher courses.
