1. Call to Order and Territorial Acknowledgement

   The Chair, Melissa Cuthill, called the meeting to order at 2:01 p.m. with territorial acknowledgement.

2. Approval of Agenda

   Kent Mullinix moved the agenda be confirmed as amended.

   The motion carried.

3. Approval of Minutes, March 4, 2025

   Kent Mullinix moved the minutes be accepted as circulated.

                                                                    The motion carried.

4. Chair's Report

   The Chair, Melissa Cuthill noted that the committee had not met since March 2025, noting it was due to a lack of agenda items for the meetings scheduled in April and May 2025.She also shared that she is working on a Data and Research Events Calendar to be added as a resource to the library.

   4.1. Introductions

   Members introduced themselves and shared their role in the committee.

   4.2. Mandate and Membership Review

   Melissa Cuthill, reviewed the Mandate and Membership with the committee members. The committee discussed the importance of facilitating dialogue and information sharing through agenda standing items and reporting to Senate as well as Faculty-level research committees and the challenges in integrating their work with this committee and Senate. Catherine Schwichtenberg, Vice-Chair of Senate, conformed that a broader review of Senate Standing Committees is scheduled for the upcoming year.

5. Items for Discussion

   5.1. AVPRI Report

   Deepak Gupta, Associate Vice President, Research initiated the discussion with the committee members on the AVPRI report's audience, format, and potential for broader distribution, considering its value and the effort involved in its preparation. The committee endorsed the suggestion of expanding the reach along with tailoring the sections to align with strategic priorities. The committee also proposed to structure the report around the research advancement strategy to tie operations to strategic goals, making achievements and ongoing projects more visible.

   5.2 Research Software

   Melissa Cuthill, introduced a discussion on the fragmented landscape of research software at KPU, highlighting licensing issues and proposing exploration of centralized solutions like RED Cap. The committee members had a robust discussion on evaluation of solutions, operational and budgetary considerations and agreed to continue review the alternatives.

6. Regular Reports

   6.1. Associate Vice-President, Research and Innovation

Deepak Gupta, referred the committee to his report and highlighted the appointments of Dr. Lisa Monchalin and Dr. Cayley Velazquez to a Canada Research Chair, securing over $1.2 million in external funding over five years and announced major grants from Genome BC and NSERC TAC, emphasizing their impact on equity, inclusion, and high-impact research at KPU.

7. Items for Information

   7.1. RS1 Policy and Procedure

   Deepak Gupta, provided an update on the RS1 research policy, clarifying its status as a board policy and outlining the consultation process confirming the committee's advisory but non-endorsement role.

8. Adjournment

   The meeting adjourned at 4:03 p.m.

SENATE STANDING COMMITTEE ON RESEARCH
Agenda Number: 5.1
Meeting Date: Thursday, March 26, 2026
Presenter(s): Brett Favaro

AGENDA TITLE: INTERFACE BETWEEN SENATE STANDING COMMITTEE ON RESEARCH AND AVP RESEARCH AND INNOVATION PORTFOLIO

ACTION REQUESTED: Discussion

Context and Background

The Associate Vice President Research and Innovation has traditionally played a significant and collaborative role with the SSCR. The purpose of this discussion will be to consider how best to make this relationship productive, useful, and aligned with governance-focused intent of a Senate subcommittee.

The purpose of this discussion is twofold: 1) To discuss what format the report from the AVPRI office to the SSCR should take. What information is valuable? What is too much? What is too little? And 2) Is this committee (focused on governance and advice to Senate) the best avenue to provide necessary support for research, or would another forum (such as AVPR-led advisory body) be better?

Key Messages

1. Given the changeover in the AVPRI role, the matters above (reporting and intersection between executive and committee) warrant a timely discussion.

AGENDA TITLE: MEMBERSHIP REVIEW

ACTION REQUESTED: Discussion

Context and Background

We're taking time to look at committee membership now because Senate committees are due for their regular mandate and membership reviews, and we are doing the groundwork for SGNC. The discussion is an opportunity to discuss if our current membership structures still make sense for the work we're doing and the work ahead. It's only about hearing perspectives and understanding what might need attention. No actions at this time.

1. Discussion Questions

Submitted by

Catherine Schwichtenberg

Date submitted

March 3, 2026

1. Current Membership
   - Are the right voices at the table for the type of work this committee is expected to do?
   - Do members feel they have the expertise or perspectives needed to contribute meaningfully?

MEMBERSHIP COMPOSITION

Voting Members
- Chancellor
- President
- Student representative
- One faculty senator or representative from each Faculty/School
- Associate Vice-President, Indigenous Leadership or designate
- Associate Vice-President, Research or designate
- Associate Vice-President, Teaching and Learning or designate
- Two deans or designates
- Director of a Research Institute / Centre

* An upper-level undergraduate or graduate student

Non-voting Members
- Vice-Chair of Senate
- Director, Office of Research Services or designate

2. Representation & Expertise

- Does the current membership reflect the groups, roles, or knowledge areas that should be part of this committee?
- Are there any gaps in representation (e.g., Faculties, students, administrative roles, specialists)?

3. Member Workload & Capacity

- Are people able to participate fully, (do they have the time to prepare for the meeting?)
- Are student members able to engage meaningfully within the current structure?

4. Clarity of Roles

- Are any roles ambiguous or unclear in practice?
- Do members understand what is expected of them?

5. Diversity of Perspectives

- Are diverse academic and institutional perspectives present and heard?
- Are there voices missing that would strengthen the committee's work?
- Does the committee have the right balance of operational knowledge and academic judgment?

6. Looking Ahead

- What would committee members want to keep exactly as it is?
- What small changes could make the committee more effective?

AGENDA TITLE: 2026 – 2027 SENATE AND COMMITTEE MEETING CALENDAR

ACTION REQUESTED: Information

Context and Background

The Senate Office is presenting the proposed 2026–2027 meeting calendar for Senate and its standing committees. The schedule includes meeting dates, submission deadlines, and agenda publication timelines. Committees are invited to provide feedback to help ensure the calendar supports effective governance, timely information flow, and consistent participation.

The annual governance calendar is developed with consideration for:

- the need for predictable cycles that allow subcommittees and standing committees to bring items forward in an orderly manner;
- major university activities that impact workflow and availability (convocation, examinations, reading week, and holiday closures);
- sufficient time for agenda preparation, document review, and consultation before items advance to Senate; and
- alignment with the academic rhythm of academic planning, budgeting, curriculum, and policy work.

The proposed schedule follows a pattern of eight Senate meetings, generally held on the last Monday of the month, with adjustments where necessary to accommodate holidays or operational constraints.

Key Messages:

1. Governance Flow:

The schedule is organized into cycles that culminate in a Senate meeting that is timed to precede a Board of Governors meeting. Committee meetings within each cycle are scheduled to ensure recommendations can meet Senate deadlines. Feedback is requested on whether the proposed sequence supports a smooth flow of information.

2. Timing and Workload

Committee members are asked to consider whether any proposed dates fall too close to submission deadlines or conflict with periods of high academic activity. Identifying potential bottlenecks now will help prevent deferrals or delays later in the year.

3. Institutional Alignment:

The calendar aligns with activities such as convocation, exam periods, reading week, and holiday closures. Committees are asked to identify any additional program-specific or faculty-level considerations that may affect the feasibility of certain dates.

4. Member Participation:

Predictable, recurring dates help ensure quorum and consistent attendance. Committee members are asked to comment on whether the proposed pattern supports effective participation throughout the academic year.

Consultations

1. Keri Spindler, University Secretary
2. Catherine Schwichtenberg, Vice-Chair of Senate
