Convocation Protocol

Family and friends are requested to rise if able when the graduands' procession enters, and to remain standing until the conclusion of the singing of O Canada.

Following the singing of O Canada, please be seated and remain seated for the duration of the ceremony. Professional images will be captured of each student as they cross the stage and those images will be shared via email in the coming weeks.

Convocation will conclude with the recession of the platform party and graduates; please rise if you are able and remain standing until the recession is complete.

Convocation Reception

We invite all graduates and their guests to enjoy refreshments immediately following the ceremony in the Convocation Hall, located in the atrium of the Surrey Maple building.

The Paddles by Brandon Gabriel

On display at convocation ceremonies are five hand-carved canoe paddles, each painted with an original Coast Salish design.

Created by Kwantlen First Nation artist Brandon Gabriel, each of the full-length paddles features artwork designed to symbolize a KPU campus — a wolf for Surrey, a beaver for Tech, a bear for Civic Plaza, a thunderbird for Richmond and an eagle for Langley.

The paddles also reflect the language and culture of the First Peoples of this region who have relied on the local rivers, lakes and seas for millennia. They are important symbols of the university's tireless effort to foster knowledge and understanding.

Brandon (Kwelexwelsten) studied at KPU and his art has been exhibited around the world. His murals, screens, sculptures, installations and graphic art can be found in dozens of schools, civic buildings, public parks and plazas. He recently co-created an eight-metre-tall mural on display at the KPU Surrey library.

American Sign Language (ASL) interpretation will be provided at all convocation ceremonies.

O Canada

O Canada! Our home and native land!
True patriot love in all of us command.
With glowing hearts we see thee rise,
The True North strong and free!
From far and wide, O Canada,
We stand on guard for thee.
God keep our land glorious and free!
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee,
O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

Message from The Chancellor

It brings me immense joy and pride to address our graduates as your chancellor. This is an amazing milestone on your life journey and one worthy of great celebration. As you continue on this journey, you are now better equipped with a strong educational foundation. Not only will you greatly benefit from the credential you have just received, but also from the skills you have developed through your post-secondary education experience. You will also continue to be an integral part of the KPU community.

Like me, you are now alumni of KPU. And as alumni you have the power to effect change locally and globally. Your current and future success is the university's success.

Your community is now larger and evolving, but remember that it was your family and community that helped you succeed, and now I encourage you, as emerging leaders, to make choices to help improve your community. When you support and improve your community, you can have a positive impact on the world, making it a better place for all.

Best wishes and my heartfelt congratulations on your success. Our future is bright indeed.

All my relations,

Kwuntiltunaat (Kim Baird)

KPU's Story

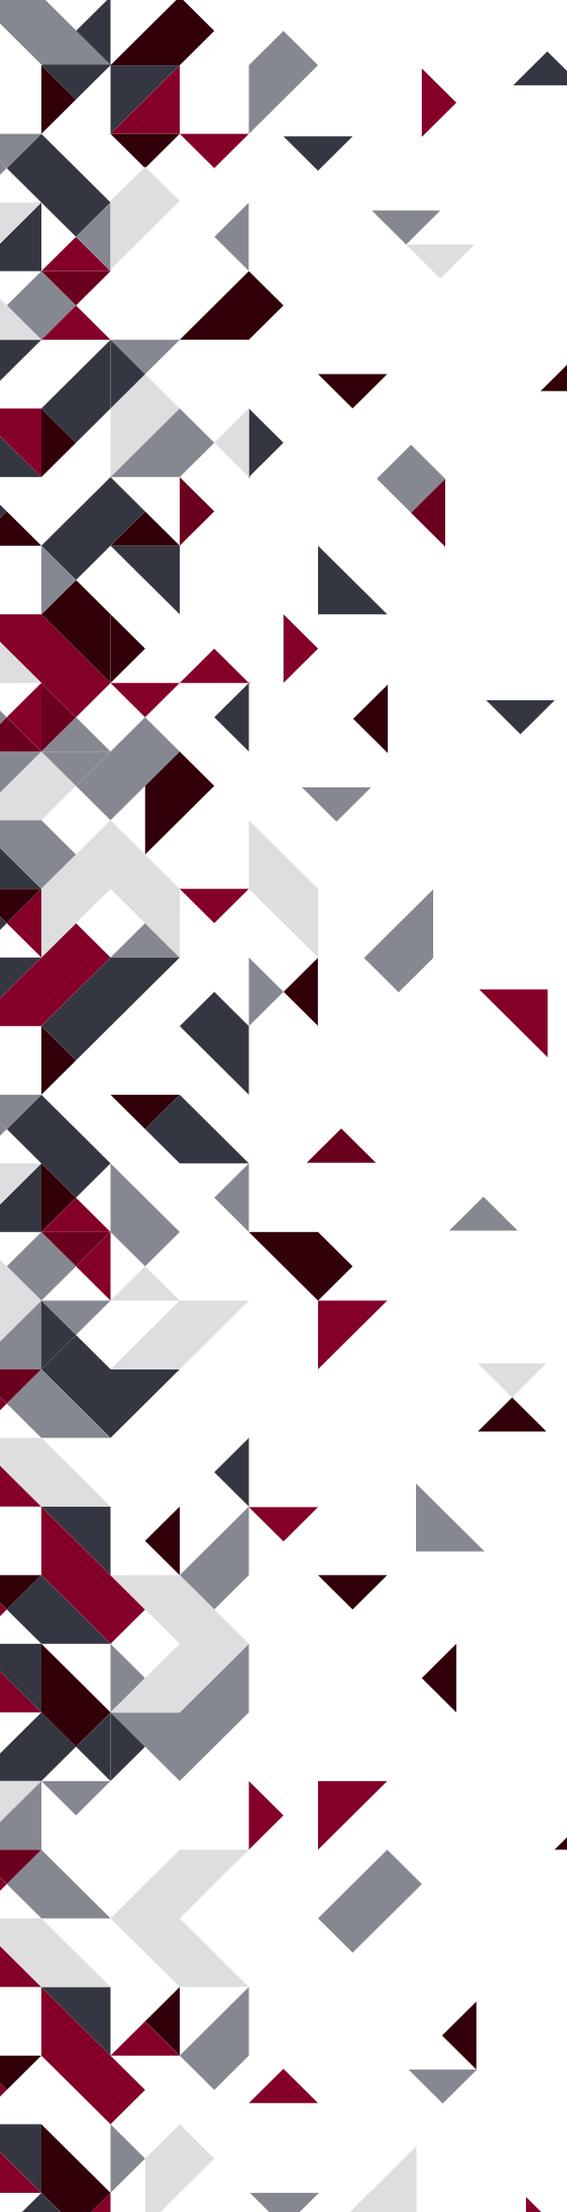

Kwantlen Polytechnic University (KPU) is an innovative, transformative and ambitious institution that serves the needs of Metro Vancouver, British Columbia, and beyond. KPU offers a range of degree, diploma, certificate, and citation programs with opportunities for hands-on experience and experiential learning. With campuses in Richmond, Surrey, Cloverdale, Langley, and Civic Plaza in Surrey City Centre, KPU has opened the doors to success for more than 250,000 students for over four decades.

Established in 1981 by the Province of British Columbia, KPU proudly adopted the name of the Kwantlen First Nation, whose people are acknowledged historically as 'tireless runners.' The name has proven to be prophetic as KPU, the institution, runs tirelessly to expand its capacity to serve the citizens of Metro Vancouver, the province, the nation, and the world.

As Canada's only polytechnic university, KPU is committed to providing students with a unique learning experience that cannot be found elsewhere, while also providing the ethical framework and critical understanding necessary for good citizenship. The University's commitment to applied research and innovation with external partners enhances the quality of its teaching, and contributes significantly to the economic development of the region.

As a university that allows for multiple interpretations of excellence, students define and design the path to success that's right for them at KPU: where thought meets action.

Ceremony & Graduation Roll

This program includes the names of only those students who applied to graduate on or before November 15, 2025. The complete Graduation Roll is available online at kpu.ca/convocation.

Award Recipients

President's Outstanding Graduate Award

Presented annually, the President's Outstanding Graduate Award encourages KPU students to excel in their chosen fields of study and to participate in university, student and community activities to the benefit of others. Recipients have completed all their study in one program at KPU, have consistently shown outstanding ability in the field, have contributed in a significant way to KPU or community affairs, and may be recommended by faculty.

Bachelor's Degree Program

Nhicelee Galapate

Bachelor of Business Administration in Human Resources Management

Beyond her impressive academic achievements that include a 4.1 cumulative grade point average, Nhicelee has demonstrated exceptional perseverance throughout her time at KPU by balancing her work schedule and volunteer commitments with her studies.

Her academic journey at the Melville School of Business at KPU included an internship at Westland Insurance through the Melville Business Strategy Internship program. This work-integrated learning program equipped her to apply human resources program-specific knowledge in a workplace environment. Working with Westland's learning and development team, Nhicelee collaborated on the creation of learning plans, developed WHMIS safety training videos and supported employee development initiatives.

Nhicelee further complemented her studies by participating in a two-week study abroad program and field schools that took her to Japan, the United Kingdom and France. She also worked as a student assistant with KPU International, contributing to an inclusive campus environment and enhancing her cross-cultural communication skills. Additionally, she volunteered to support KPU Open House and assisted students from Japan with speaking sessions and field trips, as part of a short-term program organized by KPU International's Office of Global Engagement.

Outside of KPU, Nhicelee gives back to her community by volunteering with the New Living Assembly Langley Outreach worship team, serving as a pianist and vocalist. Nhicelee is grateful to her instructors, peers and mentors, as well as her family and friends for their guidance and inspiration. She is excited to continue growing professionally and contributing to the field of human resources and her community.

Diploma Program

Katelyn Watson

Associate of Arts (with Distinction), Psychology

Growing up with chronic pain and illness, Katelyn Watson often felt lost and hopeless. A lack of support from the healthcare system meant she had to learn to cope with her health challenges on her own.

Determined to support and empower patients going through similar experiences, she enrolled in KPU's Associate of Arts in Psychology program.

Throughout her studies at KPU, Watson has demonstrated her commitment to advocacy and research through several extracurricular activities — all while maintaining a 4.29 CGPA.

Serving on the KPU Accessibility Committee, Watson contributed significantly to developing KPU's first Accessibility Plan. She also worked as a research assistant on a project assessing the accessibility of admissions policies and procedures among postsecondary institutions in BC. This research was published in a report co-authored by Watson.

Beyond KPU, Watson has volunteered with the BC Children's Hospital since 2019, contributing to programs and committees on pain management, patient safety, youth-friendly care and more.

Watson plans to continue pursuing research and advocacy on health and disability, and is now working towards a Bachelor of Arts in Public Health at the University of Victoria. She's also working as one of the first research assistants at the SFU School of Medicine, studying the relational and structural conditions within our healthcare system that shape whether care feels validating, safe and compassionate for young people with chronic health conditions.

Professor Emeritus

Emeritus is an honorary appointment for life awarded to a retired employee for distinguished service and academic contributions to KPU, and establishes a relationship that is both symbolic and active. The emeritus appointment recognizes distinguished performance of an employee, honours the employee's standing of high regard in the eyes of peers and colleagues, and anticipates the continuation of the employee's academic contributions to KPU beyond retirement.

Greg Chan

Greg Chan first joined KPU in 1995 when it was still called Kwantlen College, having accepted a limited contract to cover a leave position. What started as a temporary stint would soon turn into a lifelong career.

Over the past 30 years, Greg has left a remarkable impact on both the institution and wider KPU community. An imaginative and dedicated educator, Greg brought literature and film to life for students, inspiring their own scholarly and creative pursuits.

Beyond teaching, Greg's notable contributions include founding Mise-en-scène, an international, peer-reviewed film studies journal.

Co-director of KDocsFF: Vancouver's Premier Social Justice Film Festival, Greg is also credited with establishing the Emerging Filmmaker Residency program, which awards local and emerging filmmakers with a four-month residency in the KDocsFF Social Justice Lab at KPU.

He also runs the KDocsFF Community Outreach Program, through which he has organized various programs and initiatives related to social justice and documentary activism.

Greg plans to maintain close ties with the KPU community as he continues to coordinate the KDocsFF programs, helps transition Mise-en-scène to its new co-editors and manages the installation of Jag Nagra's "People Like Us" mural in KPU's Cedar Commons.

Convocation Traditions

KWANTLEN POLYTECHNIC UNIVERSITY

Heraldry

The Arms of Kwantlen Polytechnic University were presented at a ceremony on May 4, 1999 by the Right Honourable Romeo LeBlanc, Governor General of Canada.

The centre shield features ‘The Spirit of KPU’ emblem comprising a wolf, a salmon, and a river azure as styled by Brandon Gabriel.

At the top of the blue shield, on the left side a lion and on the right a tiger facing each other in the rampant position (upright on one hind leg with forelegs outstretched as if attacking). And at the bottom of the blue shield, on the left a jaguar and on the right a Chinese dragon also facing each other in the rampant position. All are gold.

At the top in the centre, there is an open book with silver or white pages, bindings in gold and on top of it, a gold horizontal (in fess) rectangle (billet) with square bites taken out of the long sides (bretessed). In modern heraldry, this item is meant to represent a computer chip.

The crest appears above the shield, and is supported by a silver and blue twisted fabric wreath. The upper rim is set with a simple silver crown, the upper edge decorated with four salmon, looking at each other in pairs.

Supporting the arms is a green grassy mound, scattered with gold Douglas Fir cones. The mound is rising from wavy horizontal bands of blue and silver. This is the traditional heraldic representation of water - either river or ocean.

On the left is a gold female deer with blue hooves, and her bottom half is a silver fishtail with gold fins. Around her neck is a wreath of twisted silver and blue cloth. Hanging from the wreath is a green disk with an open book on it—the pages are silver; the cover is gold.

On the right is a gold eagle with a silver head, with blue talons and beak. Around his neck is a wreath like the doe’s and hanging from it is a green disk with the heraldic representation of a gold computer chip.

The motto reads: Through Tireless Effort, Knowledge and Understanding.

University Mace

The mace was originally a weapon during the medieval period, and came to be associated with the prowess and strength of the knight. Today the mace is a symbol of the University’s authority to award degrees and diplomas. It indicates the seriousness of convocation as the University’s most important academic ceremony, and is a confirmation of the University’s integrity as an academic institution. The mace is carried by a mace-bearer, who leads the processional of faculty and students in to and out of the venue where convocation is held. The mace is usually between four feet and six feet in length and will incorporate the history and tradition that surround the vision for the University.

An academic mace symbolizes the authority vested in the chancellor to confer university credentials. This is why the mace is an integral part of convocation.

Maces are often commissioned to commemorate a milestone anniversary or presidential inauguration. Typically an artist is selected for the honour to develop a highly symbolic design that incorporates the University’s traditions.

KPU’s mace was carved by Kwantlen First Nation artist Drew Atkins.

KPU Parchments

New Kwantlen Polytechnic University (KPU) graduates will now receive graduation parchments featuring the Indigenous language spoken by the Kwantlen First Nation.

KPU is among the first universities in Canada to offer students an Indigenous language parchment, in addition to the English versions graduates already receive. The new parchments will feature a blend of English and hən̓qəmin̓əm̓ (pronounced HUN-kuh-MEE-num).

hən̓qəmin̓əm̓, also known as a Down River dialect of the Halkomelem language, is the language spoken by people of the Kwantlen, Katzie, Tsawwassen, Kwikwetlem, and Musqueam First Nations on whose traditional unceded territories KPU is situated. KPU is also located on the traditional unceded territories of the SENĆOŦEN-speaking Semiahmoo First Nation.

Fern Gabriel, a member of Kwantlen First Nation and hən̓qəmin̓əm̓ language teacher with Langley School District, used her expertise to translate the parchment text.

KPU is committed to advancing reconciliation and weaving Indigenous knowledge, values, and representation into the institution. Embedding the hən̓qəmin̓əm̓ language in parchments is one more way the university is encouraging various communities to learn the traditional language of the territories and respect the land-based Nations.

The hən̓qəmin̓əm̓ language is being included in more places around KPU. It can already be found at student service counters, and on campus building signs, and is being added to some institutional documents.

Regalia

Not until they slip into their regalia do many graduands realize the significance of their convocation ceremony. For family and friends, the first glimpse of the graduand in cap and gown heralds a milestone in the life of their loved one.

Standard for Academic Dress

At KPU, all graduates wear a black gown of Oxford shape and a black cap, or mortar board. All students wear a black tassel on their mortar board, and the tassel hangs to the left of the cap. Graduates of our bachelor's degree programs wear hoods in the Aberdeen style, made of black pilgrim cloth and bordered with a one-half inch border. The border of each hood is a specific colour that identifies a particular area of study.

Honorary Degrees: KPU Colours

Honorary Degree recipients wear a black gown of an Oxford shape and a black cap, or mortar board with a black tassel with a custom cover featuring the circle Salmon and Wolf Art in Charcoal and Grey. Honorary graduates are provided a custom hood by KPU featuring the circle Salmon and Wolf Art in Charcoal and Grey.
