

DESIGN FIELD SCHOOL

Copenhagen, Denmark

April 26-May 6, 2027

PROGRAM DETAILS:

Over the 10-day period we will visit significant historical and contemporary cultural locations and design projects, such as DAC/BLOX, Housing developments (UN17m VM Mountain, 8 House, Urban Rigger), Copenhill, Design Museum of Copenhagen in Copenhagen, DOKK1, Aros Aarhus Art Museum in Aarhus and St Peter's Church and Turning Torso in Malmo, Sweden. Through these excursions we will gain insight into contextual and cultural history of the regions, as well as personal, community and global issues related to design and the built environment.

PROGRAM FEE: $ 3975.00 (projected)

This fee includes accommodation, breakfast, city transportation, museum/ gallery/ exhibitions.

A $800 non-refundable deposit is required by Nov 6, 2026 (goes towards the program fee).

*International flight, personal expenses, most meals, tuition, are not included in the fee.

To learn about several scholarships that are available for field schools, visit kpu.ca/studyabroad/go-on-exchange/funding-scholarships

APPLY NOW!

APPLICATION DEADLINE

Oct. 16, 2026

kpu.ca/fieldschools

FACULTY LEADERS

Marlis Joller
Interior Design Faculty
marlis.joller@kpu.ca

Jessica Gingell
Interior Design Faculty
jessica.gingell@kpu.ca

CONTACT US

Internationalprograms@kpu.ca
604-599-2403

Sung Jo Park
Student Abroad Coordinator
sungjo.park@kpu.ca