About Perth

Perth is the capital city of Western Australia (commonly referred to as WA), which is the largest state in Australia.

Averaging 3000 hours of sunshine per year, Perth is the only Australian capital where you can appreciate the beach lifestyle, savour world-class local products, enjoy a beautiful ocean sunset and unwind in the bushland, all within a 30-minute drive from the city centre.

Perth has a vibrant restaurant and food scene, with more than 100 new restaurants and pubs opening in the past two years.

Getting around Perth

Perth has a modern and a very safe public transport system and as a full-time international student, you receive a discount on Perth's public transport network. Within the Perth CBD, there is also a free bus service accessible to everyone.

During your orientation session at ECU, you will be issued a SmartRider card, which you will be able to use on all public transport in Perth. Visit the Transperth website transperth.wa.gov.au for more information about travelling on buses and trains.

Time zone

Perth's local time is eight hours ahead of Greenwich Mean Time, which is the same time zone as many countries in Asia.

Climate

Perth has a Mediterranean climate with hot dry summers and mild wet winters; there is very little rainfall in summer with most of the rainfall coming in winter. However, even in winter, Perth still enjoys plenty of warm sunshine, so it is no wonder Western Australians love the outdoors.

Perth has four distinct seasons:

Season	Month	Average maximum temperature	Average minimum temperature	Average days of rainfall per month	Average hours of sunshine per day
Summer	Dec/Jan/Feb	29 °C	17°C	4	11
Autumn	Mar/Apr/May	24 °C	14°C	9	7
Winter	Jun/Jul/Aug	18 °C	10°C	18	5
Spring	Sep/Oct/Nov	21 °C	12 °C	11	9

Food

Strong multiculturalism and immigration have contributed to Perth's diverse cuisine. Indeed, Perth offers a wide variety of cuisines such as Thai, Chinese, Indonesian, Malaysian, Mexican, Italian, Vietnamese, Singaporean, Indian, Japanese and Korean.

Languages

English is Australia's official language. However, because of the large European and Asian immigrant population, there is a wide range of other languages spoken such as Arabic, Chinese, Greek, Hindi, Italian, Malay, Tamil and Vietnamese.

Free Wi-Fi

The City of Perth as well as the City of Joondalup offer free public Wi-Fi around the Central Business District, which allows users to connect to the internet for basic browsing.

Beaches

Perth is home to some of the best beaches in the world (TripAdvisor 2014). With 19 beautiful white sand beaches, there is one to suit your needs: Cottesloe for swimming, surfing, and snorkelling (a definite favourite amongst teens and young adults); Scarborough for stellar windsurfing and surfing conditions; Trigg for surfing and catching the most magnificent waves; City Beach for body boarding or fishing; Floreat for relaxing and enjoying the sound of the waves – just to name a few.

Perth Fast Facts

- The Economist Intelligence Unit has rated Perth one of the top 10 most liveable cities in the world for the past 13 years (2004-16).
- Perth was also rated in the top 30 Best Student Cities in the World (QS, London 2012-2013).

Who was Edith Cowan?

Born in 1861 in Glengarry, Western Australia, Edith Dircksey Cowan believed education was the key to growth, change and improvement. Edith's contribution to the development of Western Australian education was significant. She strove to achieve social justice and campaigned for the rights of women, children and families, for the poor, the poorly educated and the elderly. So it's fitting that the oldest education institution and newest public university, Edith Cowan University, bears her name.

25 Years of making of difference

Established in 1991, ECU has rapidly developed into a modern institution that focuses on both research excellence and quality teaching. 2016 marks ECU's 25th anniversary. ----------	-------------

Some units may have additional fees attached to them that must be paid by the student. For example if a unit includes a field trip or has special lab needs.

Other expenses

You will be responsible for purchasing textbooks and any equipment required for your course. The cost of these items varies widely from one course to another. Other expenses that you may incur include food, parking, consumables such as stationery and photocopying, as well as transport costs to and from university, including any work placements or off-campus activities.

Living costs

Whether you live on-campus or off-campus, you should budget about $365 per week for your living costs. Please note that this does not include tuition fees, textbooks, running a car or holiday travel.

ECU's teaching and support of international students are guided and monitored by the Department of Education under the Education Services for Overseas Students (ESOS) Framework.

Relevant and Flexible Study Options

As an exchange or study abroad student at ECU you can pick and choose units from the many study areas offered across the University to make up your individual semester schedule.

So whether you need to find specific units that match your degree in your home country, or you are looking to study something completely new, you're sure to find units to suit your needs.

What's the difference between a unit and a course?

The individual classes that you can take at ECU are known as 'units' (sometimes referred to as 'modules' or 'courses' at institutions in the northern hemisphere).

The word 'course' at ECU actually refers to a full degree program, not the individual units. As a study abroad or exchange student at ECU, you will not be studying towards an ECU course/degree program. You will instead be able to choose individual units from our different study areas.

How many units will I study during my semester at ECU?

A standard full-time semester study load is 60 credit points in the ECU credit system. Most ECU units are worth 15 credit points, so students will study four units per semester to make up their full-time semester study load. However, some ECU units are worth 10 or 20 credit points, so the number of ECU units you take to make up your 60 credit points for your semester may vary.

You should speak to the International Office at your home institution for advice on how the units you study at ECU will be credited back to your home institution degree. Academic credit transfer is at the discretion of your home institution.

What will my semester study timetable look like?

There are thirteen teaching weeks during the ECU semester and you will normally have classes each week for each unit in which you are enrolled. The ECU semester also includes a mid-semester break (normally one week where you can catch up on class work or do some travel to explore the surrounding areas) as well as a study week before the commencement of the examination period at the end of the semester.

The total number of weekly on campus contact hours will depend on the number and type of units you select.

Sample of a weekly class timetable:

	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
8:30am		MAT1108			FRE1101 (Seminar)
9:30am		(Laboratory)		MAN1100
10:30am	MAN1100			(Lecture)
11:30am	(Lecture)
12:30pm	Lunch
1:30pm	MAT1108
2:30pm	(Laboratory)	SCH1101		SCH1101
3:30pm		(Tutorial)		(Tutorial)
4:30pm

How do I find my units?

The best way to search for units at ECU is to visit the latest available ECU Handbook <http://handbook.ecu.edu.au>. From the Handbook you can:

1) Enter a keyword or subject title in the search box. You will be given a list of courses, unit sets or units that contain that keyword or title. You may need to peruse through the various courses to find particular units in your subject area.

2) You can refine your search by using the 'Filter Search' function on the left hand side. This will help you search via our Schools or by Postgraduate or Undergraduate.

3) Visit the ECU Semester Timetable apps.wcms.ecu.edu.au/semester-timetable/overview to find when and on which campus a particular unit is offered. You will need to enter the Unit Code or the Unit Title into the semester timetable search fields. For example, Semester 2, 2016 is indicated as 162 in the timetable, Semester 1, 2017 will be 171 and Semester 2, 2017 will be 172.

The Handbook will show the unit code and title (for example, MKT3120 International Marketing) its number of credit points and provide a brief description of the unit as well as listing any prerequisite requirements that need to be satisfied before enrolment can be approved in that unit.

Make sure you find more units than you need as not all units listed in the ECU Handbook are offered every semester. We suggest you select all your units from one campus to minimise travel time between campuses.

Schools

There are a range of ECU units at both undergraduate and postgraduate* levels offered across the following schools:

- Arts & Humanities
- Business & Law
- Engineering & Technology
- Medical & Health Sciences

Further information about our different study areas, including sample units offered, is provided on the following pages.

* Restrictions may apply.

Arts & Humanities

Explore the complexities of the human mind, immerse yourself in a creative and engaging environment and make a contribution to improving people's quality of life. ECU's new School of Arts and Humanities offers over sixty programs across all three ECU campuses, including specialist and interdisciplinary courses in the arts, design, media and communications, psychology and criminology, and the social sciences. Our flexible course structures allow open access to electives in all areas of the School to encourage multi-skilling, improve employment prospects and to promote a broader understanding of how the arts and humanities play a central role in the social and cultural fabric of our society.

World-class facilities

In 2016, ECU made a major commitment to the arts through a $5 million investment in Arts and Humanities facilities. The re-housing of the design, photography and media studios, along with the refurbishment of the visual art and fashion areas, provide world-class facilities for staff, students and researchers.

"My experience at ECU in Perth has been fantastic!"

ECU's facilities, lecturers, and students have all been excellent. In Perth, I feel closer to nature. Whenever I need to relax or when I want to take a break from my studies, I always end up at Kings Park or at one of Perth's many beaches.

Studying abroad has given me the opportunity to appreciate my country's culture as well as other countries' cultures; a truly once in a lifetime experience!

Kurongkurl Katitjin – Centre for Indigenous Australian Education and Research

- ensuring that individual differences and diversity are respected; and
- contributing to Indigenous community development and sustainability through our students, staff and graduates.

The Building and its Gardens

Completed in 2005, the Kurongkurl Katitjin Building was designed in consultation with Nyoongar elders to graphically represent Aboriginal culture and the Australian landscape.

The purpose-built premises is an iconic and colourful, three-storey, state-of-the-art building. Its colours represent the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander flags, as well as the Australian landscape. Nyoongar words about place and family are etched into the outer facades of the building.
