Notes:

1. Given AU's unique course delivery, the level of the courses were approximated as follows: 1st and 2nd yr= 200, 3rd yr=300, 4th yr=400.
2. Given AU's rolling monthly enrolments the following definitions were set: Summer 2018 defined as May-Aug. 2018, Fall 2018 defined as Sept.-Dec. 2018, Winter 2019 defined as Jan.-Apr. 2019.
3. The reported registrations are unweighted. Therefore, no distinction is drawn between registration in 3-credit or 6-credit courses; the reported registrations are net: i.e., they excluded early withdrawals. Since, it takes about 3 months for early withdrawals to clear the system the Winter 2019 data might be overstated

HIST 2207 Rome from Republic to Empire – finalizing stages

Certificate in Classics

- partnership with SFU

- Students must take 15 credits in credit eligible courses to complete the certificate. Nine credits must come from the three core courses: intro-level classical mythology (HUMS), HIST 2205 History of Greek Civilization, and HIST 2207 Rome from Republic to Empire. Remaining credits are drawn from a variety of in-class and online courses via both Douglas and SFU.

Developing:

- re-thinking our approach to teaching American History

- third year course in Public History

- 3rd/4th year series of Special Topics (Canada/Europe/World)

Faculty:

- no new hires

- steady at 7 full-time permanent faculty

- three sessionals for summer 2019: Ian Rocksborough-Smith returns for his third and final summer, Dr. Carling Beninger and Dr. Colin Grittner for the first time this summer.

Summer Field Schools

- Greece this year; Scotland and Greece next year; developing an Ireland field school for 2021

KPU

Please forgive the lengthy addendum; KPU History has made a number of substantive changes to its program since the last BCHAC meeting.

Faculty:

Part-time Faculty:

Dr Jack Hayes is cross-appointed 50% History / 50% Asian Studies

Dr Eryk Martin and Dr Kyle Jackson were hired at 50% and 75% respectively; both will hold 100% appointments effective September 2019
Dr Robert Menzies holds a 50% History appointment

On Leave:

Dr Tracey J. Kinney, Educational Leave
Dr Colin Green, Emergency Leave (illness)

Pathway Status:

Due to its introductory nature and reduced long-form writing requirements HIST 1100: Reel History – History through Film has been granted pathway status for incoming students who need additional assistance with skills development

Online Courses:

While fully online courses are offered infrequently, we have launched pilot projects with mixed mode courses, including one (HIST 1160) that can be taken either online via podcasts or in person, depending on student preference and preparation level

SFU

1. There are 22 full-time research (tenured and tenure-track) and teaching faculty in History. History also has 3 full-time research limited-term appointments.
2. This is the number of all full-time cross-appointments.
3. There are no full-time sessional instructors in History; an individual on a short-term contract to teach either a full or partial slate of courses would be hired as a limited-term instructor.
4. 11 sessional instructors taught a total of 14 courses

5. Have been approved for a limited-term appointment to cover a faculty member's leave for 18mon
6. This is the number of faculty who went on one of the following kinds of leave: study leave, medical leave, unpaid leave of absence, and parental leave. All but one were for either one or two semester's duration.
7. All limits are History department imposed limits. These are not university-wide limits.
8. This number is a percentage of regular faculty who had marking support from teaching assistants; it does not include part-time term or sessional instructors who had marking support.
9. The limit on tutorials run by teaching assistants is 17.
10. The definition of "co-ordinator" is not understood and the term is not used in the History Department. However, two other administrative appointments in History get course release: the undergraduate and graduate chairs each receive 1 CR/YR.
