

Ghana Field school

Info Session Fall 2010

Outline

- Overview
- Itinerary
- Costs
- Applying to Go

Overview

- Kwantlen is proud to introduce a three-week field school in Ghana, which will provide students with a remarkable experience that focuses on:
 - Ghanaian culture
 - Global community development
 - Social justice and social responsibility
 - Global citizenship
- When: June 1th – July 25th, 2011

Eligibility Requirements

- You need to:
 - Be nineteen years of age
 - Be a student in good standing
 - Have completed 45 credits at 1100-level or higher prior to departure.
- You do not need to:
 - currently be a Kwantlen student to attend

Why Should You Go?

- You will have a chance to experience Ghana in an intensive and in-depth way
- You will gain valuable learning and work experience with an international scope
- You can begin to make the world your classroom
- You will have an opportunity to experience something extraordinary and enhance your academic experience with Kwantlen

Classes

- Students register for six credits for this field school:
 - SOCI 4330 Global Community Service (6 credits)
- Part of the course will be completed at Kwantlen and part on site in Ghana

Class Schedule

- The first part of the course at Kwantlen is scheduled as follows:
 - First week Mon – Thurs
 - SOCI 4330: 10-12
 - Second week Mon-Thurs
 - SOCI 4330: 10-12
 - Third & Fourth weeks
 - Preparations: immunization, visa, etc.

Itinerary

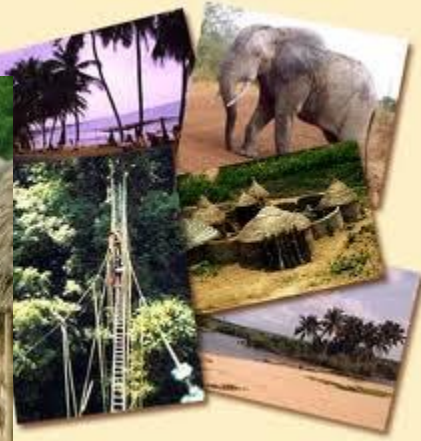

Week 1	Classes at Kwantlen
Week 2	Classes at Kwantlen
Weeks 3&4	Preparations: travel documents, immunization, etc., Depart for Accra
Week 5	Orientation at University of Ghana Classes on Ghana
Week 6	Field Trips
Week 6	Placement with NGOs
Week 7	Placement with NGOs
Week 7	Depart for Vancouver
Week 8	Presentations and debriefing

Highlights

- 2 week Internship with a non-government organization (NGO)
- Hands-on experience
- Cross-cultural classes
- Travel and sightseeing opportunities throughout southern Ghana
- Dance and music lessons

Ghana: Places of Attraction

ACCRA

Cape Coast

Accommodation

- Aya Centre: (room shared by 2 students)
- African Studies Chalets (room shared by 2 students)
- University of Cape Coast Chalet: (room shared by 2 students) or
- Anomabo Beach Resort (room shared by 2 students)

Costs

- Program is estimated to cost $2800 not including flight and tuition and personal expenses.
- A deposit of $250 will be required at the time of application and is non-refundable.
- The outstanding amount owing will be due at the same time as the rest of your regular course fees. This date will be posted at:
 - <http://www.kwantlen.ca/registration/dates.html>
- A minimum of 11 students will be required for the program to go ahead. If the program is cancelled due to attendance, your $250 will be refunded.

Application Process

- Students will need to fill out an application form and hand it in to the International Liaison Office with their $250 deposit
- Deposit cheques should be made out to Kwantlen Polytechnic University with a note: Ghana Field School.
- Application form consists of general information page and a statement of interest.
- Application deadline:
 - January 31st, 2010

Conclusion

- We hope you are excited about this opportunity.
- Further questions:
 - Email: internationalprograms@kwantlen.ca
 - Web: www.kwantlen.ca/exchange