

Get the latest information from KPU International Advising!

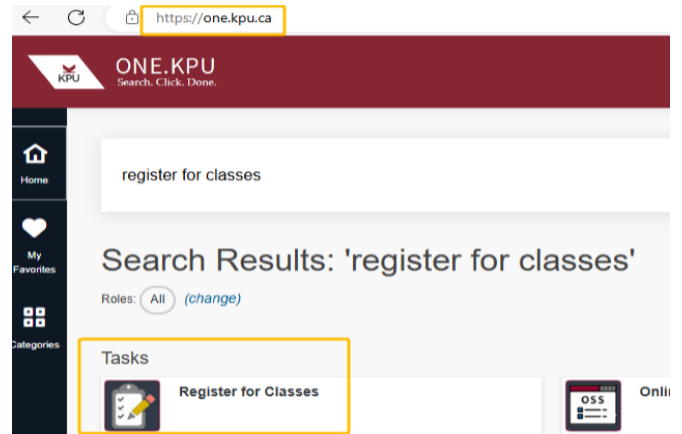

Dear KPU international students — if you're still enjoying BC's vibrant autumn colors, get ready for even more magic as early winter arrives! Stay warm, stay healthy, and make the most of November with some festive local fun.

From November 7 to 21, stroll through the dazzling Bear Creek Lights at Bear Creek Park, where glowing nature trails transform into a fairy-tale wonderland. Then, don't miss the Surrey Tree Lighting Festival on November 22 & 23 at Surrey Civic Plaza — featuring the giant tree lighting, live music, artisan markets, and food trucks for two days of joyful celebration.

Spring 2026 Course Registration

Registration for the Spring 2026 semester opens on Monday, November 10, 2025! Be sure to check your assigned registration date early and take time to clear any holds or outstanding requirements on your account before registration begins.

If you'd like extra support with course selection, program sequencing, or degree planning, connect with an International Student Advisor — they can help you create a balanced schedule, stay on track for graduation, and make the most of your upcoming semester.

Health Insurance for International Students at KPU

Health insurance is vital for all international students. Understanding your coverage is the best way to stay protected from unexpected medical costs. Explore the options available specifically for KPU international students to ensure you are prepared and supported during your studies in Canada.

Explore the Health Insurance Booklet or reach out by emailing our International Student Life Coordinators at intlstudentlife@kpu.ca. Stay informed, stay covered, and stay healthy while studying at KPU.

International Students - Graduation Checklist

We highly recommend that international students begin planning in their second-to-last term to ensure a smooth and stress-free transition.

There's a detailed Graduation Preparation Checklist that covers everything — from what to do in your second-to-last semester, to your final term, and even the steps to take after graduation. Take time to go through each step carefully, stay informed about important deadlines, and reach out if you need guidance. We're here to support you every step of the way — and we wish you a bright, successful future ahead!

Fraud Alert: Protect Yourself from Scams!

Scammers are targeting students with fake tuition discounts and fraudulent job offers.

Be cautious — if someone offers to pay your tuition at a “discount,” it's a scam. Even if the payment appears to go through, it can be reversed, leaving you responsible for the full balance.

Never share your student ID, login information, or personal details with anyone. Some scams also involve selling fake job documents or pay stubs — remember, no legitimate employer will ever ask you to pay for paperwork.
