Presented by KPU's Office of Equity & Inclusive Communities and Office of the Provost

The Inaugural

Anti-Ableism & Disability Justice Symposium

Tue, Nov 10, 2026

9:30am – 4:00pm

Doors open at 9:00am

KPU Surrey

Cedar Conference Centre

Refreshments will be served

This symposium will be recorded and shared post-event.
ASL interpreters and a low sensory space will be provided.

Keynote Address

Dr. Laverne Jacobs

Professor of Law, University of Windsor, Research Chair in Disability Equality and Administrative Justice and Canada's representative to the UNCRPD

Student Poster Presentation

Sociology of Health & Disability

Panel Presentation

Dr. Laverne Jacobs

Dr. Michael Bach

Dr. Rheanna Robinson

Dr. Erika Cedillo

Performance

Students and faculty from the Social Justice Theatre group

To register, please visit
kpu.ca/anti-ableism-disability-justice-symposium

KPU | Office of Equity and Inclusive Communities