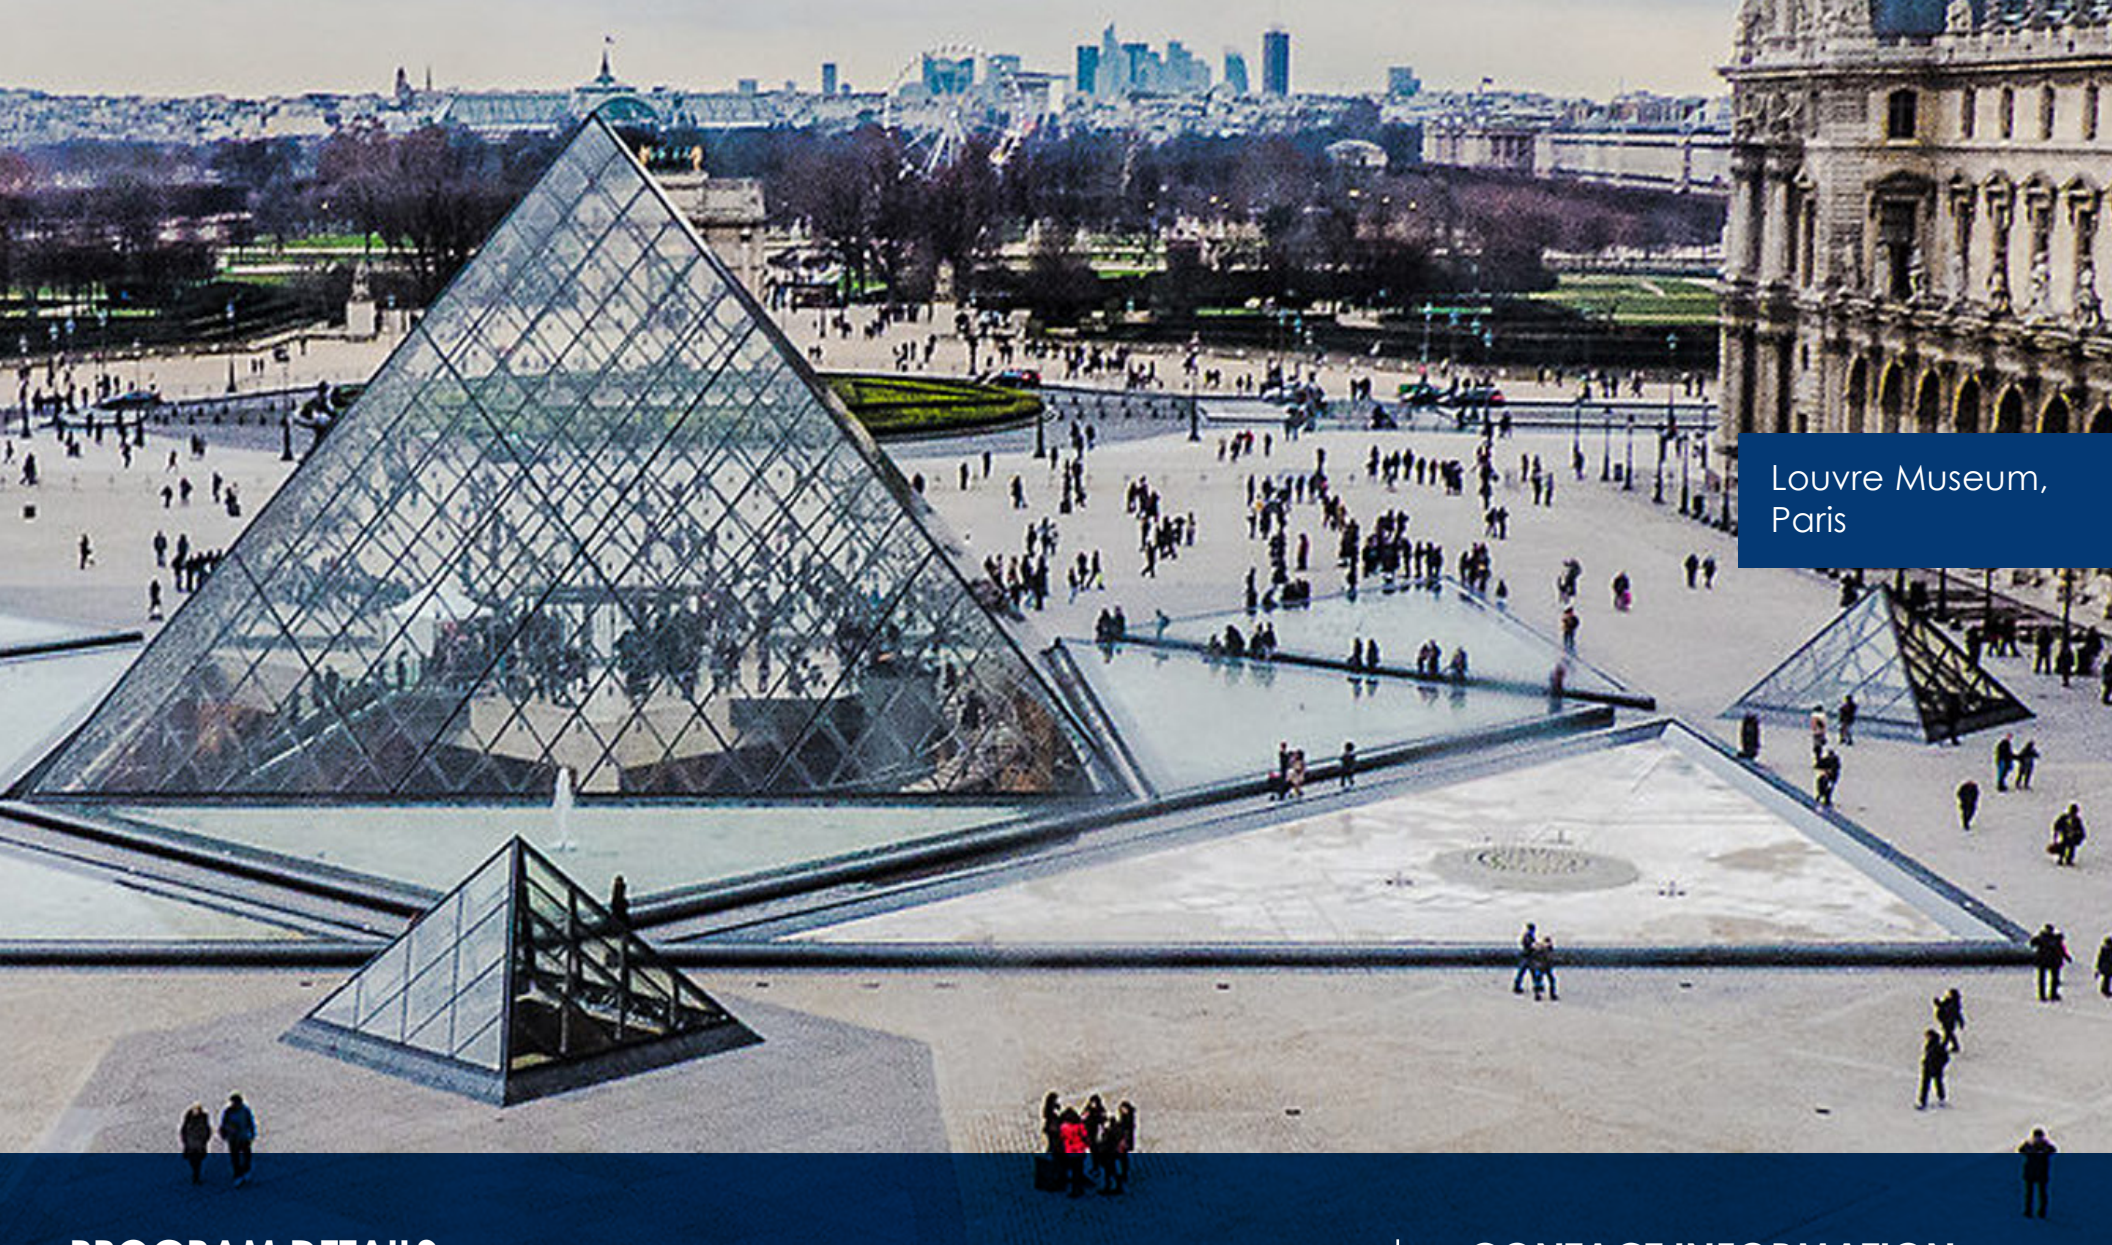
Paris & Documenta
Field School 2017



Louvre Museum, Paris

PROGRAM DETAILS

Visit Paris, France and study its dynamic urban visual environment in connection to the modernist sensibility of the flaneur and the Impressionists, while learning about the city through the lens of art history and contemporary studio practices. Then travel to Kassel, Germany to experience DOCUMENTA—the world's most prestigious contemporary art exhibition, held once every 5 years as a showcase of the best of global contemporary art. This is truly a trip of a lifetime—come join KPU's Fine Arts Field School Paris/Documenta and travel and learn alongside your fellow classmates and KPU faculty.

Program fee projected to be $3000. A $500 non-refundable deposit is payable by January 31, 2017. Fee includes accommodation, city transportation and airport/train transfer, museum/gallery/exhibition and Documenta admissions, and 3 group meals. Flight, personal expenses, most meals and tuition are not included in the fee. Several field school scholarships are available for applicants. Please inquire for details. Applications from college and university students outside of KPU will be accepted and considered based on the completion of equivalent course pre-requisites. Some offered courses are transferable between institutions as per the BC Transfer Guide.

CONTACT INFORMATION

Dorothy Barenscott
(Art History Faculty)
dorothy.barenscott@kpu.ca

Elizabeth Barnes
(Studio Faculty)
elizabeth.barnes@kpu.ca

Alex Leach
(KPU International)
internationalprograms@kpu.ca

KPU International

KPU

DEADLINE:
January 31, 2017

kpu.ca/exchange/field-schools