I The minutes of the last meeting of April 2, 1971, were accepted as circulated; corrections were made to three incorrectly spelled proper names.

Members of the committee were officially welcomed to the host institution by the principal.

In order to tour and examine the Selkirk College Archives, members of the committee agreed to re-arrange the order of the agenda and take up item III, C.

III C. Tour of Selkirk College Archives

The numbers present prevented a group tour of the archives; consequently, during the day, members individually examined the archives and its contents. Mr. C. Andrews provided us with information on the contents of the archives and the manner of their acquisition. (A list of the major holdings is appended to these minutes.) Cataloguing of the material and further acquisitions were made possible in the summer of 1971 through the work of students who were supported by an Opportunities for Youth Grant.

A list of the summer period followed.
