KPU

Engage. Empower. Evolve.

What is TED^X?

In the spirit of ideas worth spreading, TED has created a program called TED^X. TED^X is a program of local, self-organized events licensed by TED.

TED^{X}KPU

This event will be hosted at KPU Richmond on September 27, 2014. We will be inviting speakers that reflect the dynamic and polytechnic characteristics of both KPU and the Greater Vancouver area. This event will engage students, employees and the KPU community in a day of discussion, education and narratives from the many inspiring speakers that will create an event that will live up to the reputation of TED.

Be a Part of this Event

We are currently seeking organizations to help support this event. By partnering with TED^{X}KPU you will not only benefit from tremendous marketing exposure before, during, and after this high profile event, but you will also be helping to elevate the profile of the Greater Vancouver area by helping us host this event. By joining TED^{X}KPU you are building a relationship with KPU and the education community and working to empower young scholars in their pursuit of innovative ideas for the future. On behalf of the entire KPU community, we invite you to become a part of TED^{X}KPU.

Host a Viewing Party

Viewing parties can be held in any non-commercial venue. This would be a great opportunity to invite local community members to share in the TED^x experience and facilitate a discussion. Viewing parties can be held in any non-commercial space and all you will need is an internet connection and a television with the ability to connect a laptop, tablet, or smartphone to it. The streaming link will be posted on the TED^{x}KPU website.

KPU at a Glance
