6.2. Members of Faculty Council must endeavour to serve the interests of the entire Faculty to the best of their ability.

7. Selection of members for the Faculty Council of Science:

7.1. Any faculty member within a department or program who has a University appointment sufficient to serve for the term of the appointment can be elected to the Faculty Council.

7.2. Faculty representatives will be nominated from each department and will be elected by votes from only faculty members of that department.

7.3. Professional support staff in the Faculty of Science on each of the Langley, Surrey, and Richmond campuses will nominate and elect a representative for that campus.

7.4. Directors of the Research Institutes affiliated with the Faculty of Science will nominate and elect a representative.

8. Membership terms for the Faculty Council of Science:

- 8.1. Elections will normally be held in the spring semester of each year. The terms will normally run from September 1 to August 31. Elections will normally be conducted by secret ballot.
- 8.2. The faculty, professional support staff, and Research Institute membership terms on the Faculty Council will normally be two years.
- 8.3. In order to establish staggered membership and continuity of membership, at the first Faculty Council election, one member from each group of two or more will be elected for an extraordinary term of three years. In no case may the term exceed three years.
- 8.4. Each department may nominate one candidate for student representative from its roster of current students. Student nominations will go forward to the Nominations and Governance Committee, which shall recommend two student representatives to Council for endorsement.
- 8.5. Any member may resign from Faculty Council by giving the Chair notice in writing.
- 8.6. The seat of a member who leaves the constituency from which that member has been elected shall be declared vacant.
- 8.7. Any voting member who will be absent from a meeting may provide the Chair with advance written notice of the absence and designate an alternate to attend that meeting as a voting member.
- 8.8. An Associate Dean may serve on Faculty Council as an alternate for the Dean without prior notice.
- 8.9. In the event that a seat of a member becomes vacant, a replacement shall be elected or appointed according to the usual process as outlined in these Bylaws at the earliest possible date. Members so elected or appointed shall serve the remaining term of office of the incumbent, at which point the normal election or appointment process will be followed.
- 8.10. The seat of an elected or appointed member who fails to attend or designate an alternate for three meetings of Faculty Council between September 1 and August 31 may be declared vacant by the Chair.

9. Faculty Council Conduct of Business:

- 9.1. Faculty Council Chair and Vice Chair will be elected from the voting members of Faculty Council.
 - 9.1.1. The election will normally occur on or about September 1, and the normal term will be two years, or a shorter term corresponding to the Chair or Vice Chair's Faculty Council term.
- 9.2. The Chair is a voting member of Faculty Council.
- 9.3. The Chair may be removed by a two-thirds majority vote of councilors present and voting at any duly called meeting of Faculty Council.
- 9.4. The Vice-Chair will fulfill the duties of the Chair in the Chair's vacancy or absence and will assist in the performance of the Chair's duties.
- 9.5. When necessary due to vacancy or absence of the Chair and Vice-Chair, the Dean shall serve as Chair pro-tem.
- 9.6. Robert's Rules of Order shall govern the conduct of all Faculty Council meetings except as otherwise provided.
- 9.7. Faculty Council meetings may be conducted by videoconference and/or teleconference.
- 9.8. Faculty Council business conducted by email will follow Senate policies for such.
- 9.9. Faculty Council shall meet as necessary, but at least once a semester.
- 9.10. Council may, by a two-thirds majority vote, recommend to the Dean that an extraordinary meeting of the Faculty be called to address a matter forwarded by Council to the Faculty for decision or advice.
- 9.11. Meeting times (weekday, time, campus location, and possible dates) will be set once a year by Faculty Council in April for the following year. This schedule will include times for possible additional extraordinary meetings.
- 9.12. Notice of meetings shall be sent to members of the Faculty Council at least seven days in advance of a meeting.
- 9.13. In circumstances of urgency, extraordinary meetings may be called by the Chair or a quorum of Faculty Council.
- 9.14. The normal process of business at regular meetings of the Faculty Council shall be set by the Chair in consultation with members of the Faculty Council.

- 9.15. Through their representative on Faculty Council or the Chair, faculty and staff may request items to be added to the meeting agenda.
- 9.16. The quorum for the meetings will be 50% plus 1 of the voting members.
- 9.17. Any business conducted at a meeting where there is no quorum present will be considered as unofficial and subject to ratification at the next meeting held where a quorum is present. Any communication coming out of a meeting where no quorum was present shall be prefaced with a clear indication the communication is subject to ratification.
- 9.18. A simple majority of members voting is required to pass a resolution.
- 9.19. Faculty Council may decide at any time, by majority vote of those present and eligible to vote, that a whole meeting or any part of a meeting be held in camera.
 - 9.19.1. In camera sessions are restricted to voting members of Faculty Council unless a simple majority votes to invite a non-voting member or non-member to participate.
