Hardip Mann Endowed Entrance Awards

The Hardip Mann scholarship was created by the Indo-Canadian Soccer Community to honor the memory of Hardip. Hardip was always positive in promoting progressive reforms within sports. He was dedicated and focused around player development rather than winning medals or trophies. Since his own children were involved in sports, Hardip was actively involved in various levels of Surrey minor hockey, lacrosse, rugby, and soccer. Hardip was always vocal about the importance of girls in sports and school. He never wanted to be in the limelight and always preferred to work diplomatically in the background, constantly reminding parents and coaches that we should be focused solely on the kids and their dreams. Hardip leaves behind a robust legacy of community service and youth sports with a focus on gender equality. He will be forever remembered for his exceptional contributions to the sports community.

Criteria: Open to all students but primarily intended to support those students who take pride in their community and have a passion for playing sports. Preference will be given to students who played sports in school and/or in their local sports leagues (as determined by the details provided on the award application); Financial need and academic achievement of minimum 60% based on high school transcripts.
