WILSON SCHOOL OF DESIGN

BACHELOR OF INTERIOR DESIGN & HONOURS DEGREE NEW

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Our students learn by doing, by immersing themselves, by pushing the boundaries, by challenging the notions of failure, and by delving deep into the design process. We think this makes them great designers and we know this has earned our program wide respect within the industry. We're proud of our studio-based curriculum, which provides an intensive education in the built environment. Our students graduate with a well-developed design process, a robust portfolio, and the industry connections to launch their careers.

Portfolio Package Prep - The Wilson School of Design at KPU uses an online submission portal, SlideRoom, to collect, evaluate, and store portfolios. Once you have completed your online application to KPU, you will receive instructions from our Admissions team on how to submit your portfolio. This portfolio presents your potential to work in the field of interior design so you are encouraged to show a variety of work.

As part of your online submission, you will be asked to:

1. Answer a Questionnaire
2. Upload a Resumé/CV
3. Attach Unofficial Transcripts (if applicable)
4. Submit 1-3 Letter(s) of Reference
5. Upload your Portfolio (showing a variety of creative work)

PORTFOLIO TIPS

Eligible applicants who meet the application, documentation, and portfolio submission requirements will be contacted for an online interview. For more detailed information on the portfolio package as outlined above, please visit our website.

More Info - To help you create the most effective portfolio possible, we offer information sessions, feedback sessions, and open houses. For upcoming dates, please go to the Wilson School of Design 'Events' page at: kpu.ca/design/events
