

Junior Orientation Leader Position Description

Purpose: New students are always nervous when they first step foot on campus. As a Junior Orientation Leader, you'll play a supporting role in turning those nerves into excitement and motivation! Orientation Leaders are the first faces that new KPU students interact with on campus before the start of their first semester. Junior O-Leaders facilitate new friendships between new students, provide support, and help build a welcoming and friendly KPU culture.

Description: Junior O-Leaders will support and assist Senior O-Leaders on Orientation Day to welcome new students to the university; answer questions; facilitate a safe, fun, and inclusive group; assist with campus tours, conduct ice breakers and assist during classroom presentations; refer students to appropriate resources; be a supportive team member; and assist the Senior Leaders during brief absences (washroom breaks, etc). Junior OL's may be asked to assist with pre-orientation preparation such as a calling campaign, bag-stuffing, or event setup.

Time Commitment:

1. All Leaders are required to attend the mandatory training sessions totaling 8-12 hours.
NOTE: Check the dates on MyVolunteerPage
2. Each Leader must be available for at least one of the Orientation Day. Orientation events are full day events.

Requirements:

- Must be a current KPU student who enrolled in at least 9 credits
- Reliability
- Some comfort with public speaking,
- Positive attitude about KPU,
- Appreciation for diversity,
- Previous attendance at New Student Orientation (preferred, but not required)
- Willingness to make a difference in students' lives!
- Hosting Ice-breakers
- Leading part of classroom presentations

Benefits: Leadership training, networking with like-minded students, an opportunity to make a positive contribution to student life at KPU, official volunteer certificate upon successful completion of the required commitments, Orientation Team T-shirt, lots of free food, invitations to Team-building events, entry into prize draws for free Tuition, and more!

